

Get ready for Prudential RideLondon 30-31 July

The world's greatest festival of cycling

Roads and bridges will be affected across Surrey and London.
Plan ahead and know your travel options. Search TfL RideLondon.

Prudential RideLondon is the world's greatest festival of cycling with 100,000+ cyclists participating in events on traffic-free roads in London and Surrey. Events will take place in central London on Saturday 30 July 2016 and in London and Surrey on Sunday 31 July 2016.

This booklet contains important information to help you plan your travel around Richmond and Kingston on Sunday 31 July.

Prudential RideLondon was developed by the Mayor of London, Transport for London and London & Partners in partnership with Surrey County Council in 2013 and is sponsored by Prudential. The event is managed by the London & Surrey Cycling Partnership.

Events on Sunday 31 July

- Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100 –

26,000+ amateur cyclists will take on a 100-mile cycle challenge through the closed roads of London and Surrey before finishing on The Mall. Last year riders raised more than £12million for charity.

- Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 46 – a new event over 46 miles within the existing 100-mile challenge created specifically for newer and younger riders, also starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and finishing on The Mall.

- Prudential RideLondon-Surrey Classic – the world's best male cyclists will compete in this world-class one-day race through London and Surrey. The race starts at Horse Guards Parade, St James's Park before heading into Surrey and returning to the capital to finish on The Mall.

The event routes through Richmond and Kingston are on page 8-11.

Other Prudential RideLondon events

On Friday 29 July the Prudential RideLondon Grand Prix will see a series of BMX, handcycle and youth races take place at the Lee Valley VeloPark.

On Saturday 30 July the Prudential RideLondon FreeCycle, Prudential RideLondon Classique and Brompton World Championship events take place in central London only (City of London and City of Westminster).

Road closures on Sunday 31 July

On Sunday 31 July there will be an impact on traffic in large parts of London and across Surrey. Roads used by the event will be closed so you'll need to plan your travel in advance.

Cyclists in the Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100, 46 and Classic events will pass through Richmond and Kingston on the outbound route and through Kingston on the return journey towards the finish.

Local information

Key roads

The A3 will be open, although the exit slips at Esher Common, Coombe Lane and Tibbet's Corner will be closed.

Richmond Park will be closed to vehicles during the event day until 07:00 on Monday 1 August.

Roads adjoining the event routes will have local access only for residents and businesses, with usual Sunday parking restrictions unless otherwise stated. See maps on page 8-11.

For assistance with journey planning, visit www.PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk/road-closures

Where to watch

Visit Kingston town centre for a fantastic cycle festival including big screens, bike display teams, live music and entertainment. Visit www.kingstonfirst.co.uk for more information.

Businesses

Shops, restaurants and cafés in Richmond and Kingston will be open for business as usual.

River crossings

A number of bridges in central London will be closed until the evening of Sunday 31 July. Kingston Bridge will be closed. Hammersmith Bridge will be open and Wandsworth Bridge will be open for local resident access only (no through route). Hampton Court Bridge will be closed from 05:00-12:00, with local access only from 12:00-19:00. Visit www.PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk/road-closures for more information.

Local information

Parking

If you usually park on a road used for the event, please move your vehicle the night before. Vehicles cannot be parked on the event route from 00:01 on Sunday 31 July. Any vehicle left on the route or parked in a suspended parking bay will be removed from the route.

Public transport

There will be some planned engineering works taking place on the Transport for London network on the event weekend. Due to event road closures, some bus services will need to be diverted temporarily, suspended or will terminate earlier than usual. Some stops may also be temporarily relocated.

Check www.tfl.gov.uk for real time travel information and the TfL journey planner.

Emergency services

Emergencies will be treated as a priority in the usual way. If you require the emergency services, call 999. Emergency vehicle access will be maintained and prioritised throughout all of the Prudential RideLondon events.

Pedestrian crossing points

On the day

There will be stewards and volunteers positioned along the route. If you require assistance on the day that is not a 999 emergency please ask event staff to help. Alternatively contact the Helpdesk (0345 894 9773).

Pedestrian crossing points are located along the event route. These will be under supervision to help pedestrians cross the road. Usual crossings may be suspended, but an alternative will be signposted where it will be easier to cross. Please be patient during the event and listen to instructions given by stewards.
